Dear Bobby:

As I mentioned to you over the telephone, I feel that your idea about a possible article on the Security Council would be a real contribution. I am sending to Ham Armstrong in New York copies of our correspondence, together with the copy of your talk at Clark University. Ham is just back from a trip to Europe and finishing up his copy for the January issue which comes out December 15th; the next issue is March 15th. Ham will write you directly, but I have already discussed the matter with him over the telephone.

We cannot really blame [redacted] and his boys for the delay in your receiving my letter. After I had composed it and before mailing, I had a talk with Dillon Anderson and found that he, too, was turning author and we then had a series of talks. Meanwhile, my letter to you remained with its original date but unmailed.
